

Become a composer!

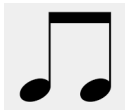

Write your own piece using the notes of the C major scale, choosing between the notes and rhythms below. It should be 8 bars long. To end the piece you should write two lines together at the end, like this.

Think about the character of your piece-what do you want your listeners to feel? How will you achieve this?

Semiquavers=quarter of a beat each. Up to 16 in a bar.

Quavers=half a beat each. Up to 8 in each bar

Crotchets= 1 beat each. Up to 4 in a bar

Minims= 2 beats each. Up to two in a bar.

Semibreves=4 beats each. Only one in each bar.

Rest=One beat of silence. Up to 4 in each bar

Don't forget...only up to 4 beats in a bar! Remember to add in your time signature and bar lines too!

What is the name of your piece?
